

Bug Club and Reading Week

This week we enjoyed a Bug Club and Reading week. The children have been celebrating their love of reading by taking part in lots reading based activities. We hosted a Bug Club parent workshop on Tuesday which was a really lovely morning. The children also enjoyed our drop and read activity, where children had to drop everything they were doing and read when they heard the bell ring!

Upper School wrote this amazing poem which shows how much they love reading!

Education! It's more than just reading a book.

Education! It's easier than it may look.

When the bell rings the children form a line,
in hope that they'll be in class on time.

When they register the children take a seat,
say "Good Morning!" and choose what to eat.

Lessons begin, which are so much fun!

Until lunch time comes, out in the sun!

Second by second, friendships grow,
a stranger becomes someone you know.

Season by season, term by term

The more you attend, the more you learn.

It has been such a great week celebrating reading at Bulphan!

I hope you have a lovely weekend.

We will see you all on Monday,

Miss S Finch
